The demonstration consists of two kits, the first was about making a team in minecraft. In that kit, you create a simple physics body by a tnt. The second is the spigot. The spigot is a minecraft object that has a possibility of making a spigot through the formation and explosion if it is placed. The first kit consists of a basic minecraft circuit with a tnt. It has a redstone wire which the team can use to construct a base. However, the team can not make a formation as this kit is an animated circuit. If you want to see more, check out my youtube channel, where you can find more demonstrations. Minecraft is best experienced with the audio on. There are many different sounds that we have used in this video, here is a list of the sounds.
